INDIA OFFICE, WHITEHALL,
27th February 1933.

DEAR SIR MIRZA,

Thank you for your letter of the 29th January and the enclosed memorandum. I understand from His Excellency that His Highness the Maharaja has since agreed not to press the claims put forward in it at the present stage. I am relieved to gather that there is no question of presenting an ultimatum to Government, and that your co-operation in the process of constitution-making, which has been so valuable hitherto, will not be prejudiced. I have however noted the contents of your letter carefully and in the circumstances, I am sure you will not expect me to comment on them.

Yours sincerely,
SAMUEL HOARE.

SIR MIRZA ISMAIL, C.I.E., O.B.E.
